

SHAILI MUZOOMDAR

Matrimonial and Family Law Strategist
| Consultant

Focused Practice Areas:

Divorces, Mutual Consent Divorces, Annulments of Marriage, Child Custody, Parenting Disputes, Judicial Separations, Maintenance, Alimony, Domestic Violence and Adoption related matters.

Professional Qualifications & Affiliations:

- Bar Council of Maharashtra & Goa [2012]
- B.L.S. LL.B. – Government Law College, Mumbai University [2012]

Practice Profile:

Shaili has over a decade's experience specializing in a diverse range of matrimonial and family law matters including adoption, annulments of marriage, child custody and parenting disputes, contested divorces, mutual consent divorces, judicial separations, maintenance, alimony and domestic violence related matters. She has successfully represented clients before the Hon'ble High Court of Bombay, Hon'ble Family Courts at Mumbai, Thane, Pune, and before various District Courts across the state of Maharashtra. Shaili has previously worked with Hariani & Co. and Mridula Kadam Associates. Her articles and interviews have been published by various leading publications like Deccan Chronicle, Times of India, ET Legalworld, Women's Times, Bar and Bench, The HANS India.

Shaili is known for her empathetic and strategic approach, ensuring each client receives personalized attention and holistic advice. She strives to resolve disputes amicably through robust negotiation but is equally resolute in court when litigation becomes necessary. She has consistently advocated for a client-first approach one that is empathetic, strategic, and tailored to the unique circumstances of every client. Shaili is deeply committed to reducing the emotional and financial toll of litigation by encouraging and facilitating amicable settlements, while also being a skilled litigator when contested proceedings arise.

OUR TEAM

Her extensive experience in this domain adds to her ability to provide strong legal representation at all levels before various Courts and Forums Pan India. Her nuanced understanding of family dynamics, combined with her legal insight, allows her to deliver comprehensive and strategic advice across all stages of a matrimonial dispute. She has earned the trust of clients for her balanced counsel driven by compassion, but anchored in strong legal advocacy.